Brighton is a large town on the south-east coast of England. Located only an hour from London, it is a charming seaside resort and the perfect destination for a peaceful weekend.

Brighton has several tourist attractions which are worth visiting. Among these is the Royal Pavilion, a beautiful Indian-style palace which was built in the early nineteenth century. Brighton's most famous attraction is the lively Palace Pier with its fantastic funfair and amusement arcades where young and old people can have fun.

There are plenty of places to go shopping with large modern shopping centres. There are also narrow lanes full of lovely antique shops.

The nightlife is exciting. There are a lot of popular music and dance clubs. And it is also well-known for its fashionable restaurants.

Summarising Brighton is the ideal choice for a few days away from the city.

1. Give full answers to the following questions:

a. Where is Brighton situated?

b. Why is Brighton attractive?

c. What is the Royal Pavilion?

d. What can you do at nights in Brighton?

e. Where can you buy antiquities?

2. Writing exercise:

In about 80–100 words, write an essay describing a place in your country which you would like to show a friend who has never been there. Write about the places he/she can visit and say what he/she can do in the morning, afternoon or at night
